My conference time is:

What we're learning this week:

Fables –Folktales &Camping
Your children's imaginations
Will take flight as they listen To fables and folktales that Have been shared for many generations. They will create Art, write there own endings
And play games that put them Inside their favorite stories

News:

With the new School year approaching We here at little lulus have added more fun ways of learning

please

Keep a look out for more information.
